Principal's Report

Dear students and families,

Welcome to the 2013 school year!

We have had a great time this morning, welcoming back the students who are returning for another great year at Naranga. We have also started to settle in our new students, including six Prep students who started their schooling life today. There have been a few tears along the way, but we know that the new students will start to make friends and enjoy school life at Naranga very quickly.

This term is only 8 weeks' long, and we have a lot of learning and activities to get through before the end of term on Thursday 28th March.

There are always lots of things happening and information to remember at the start of the school year, so please feel free to call us if you have any questions at all – the office number is 9788 2222.

Below is a calendar of events for Term 1 – it would be a great idea to put this on your fridge so that you can check it at any time to see what's happening.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every sale, purchase, and payment must be properly documented to ensure the integrity of the financial statements. This includes recording the date, amount, and purpose of each transaction.

Next, the document outlines the process of reconciling bank statements with the company's internal records. This involves comparing the bank's record of transactions with the company's ledger to identify any discrepancies. Common reasons for discrepancies include timing differences, such as deposits in transit or outstanding checks, and errors in recording.

The document also addresses the need for regular audits to verify the accuracy of the financial data. Internal audits are conducted by the company's management, while external audits are performed by independent accountants. Both types of audits are essential for ensuring that the financial statements are free from material misstatements and are presented fairly.

Finally, the document provides guidance on how to prepare the financial statements. It details the steps for calculating net income, determining the cost of goods sold, and preparing the balance sheet and statement of cash flows. The document stresses the importance of following generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) to ensure that the financial statements are consistent and comparable to those of other companies in the industry.
